Anti-Wetback Law Typical of the Confusion in U.S.

Ignoring the protests of California's citrus and vegetable producers Gov. Ronald Reagan signed into law in that state this week a measure levying heavy fines against farmers who knowingly hire "wetback" workers—"wetback" meaning Mexicans smuggled across the border, i.e. swimming the Rio Grande.

Immigration officials estimate there are half a million such illegal workers holding jobs in the U.S. at a time when our unemployment is rising. The principle behind Gov. Reagan's signature of the law holding employers accountable is clear enough—but in all probability California's new law will only pile more confusion upon a situation which is already chaotic.

There wouldn't be a "wet-back" problem in the first place if there weren't a real and unfilled demand for labor in California's groves, and, in fact, on farms all over the United States. Over the years we have set up a socially-minded structure of laws governing relief of the unemployed which actually encourages able-bodied persons to dodge rather than seek work. And where native volunteers are non-existent the inevitable happens—foreigners sneak into our country and take jobs.

It follows the pattern of the smuggling traffic so common in Europe. Nations fix a tariff so high it is profitable to risk your life bringing goods over the border without payment of duty.

Natives won't work—so foreigners come in who will work.

The U.S. has made the mistake of permitting the unemployed to be selective about what kind of work they will accept. Actually, a person accepting unemployment benefits should have the responsibility of accepting whatever work is available.

Holiday Traffic Death Toll Climbs to 188

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
The nation's Thanksgiving traffic death toll reached 188 today.

Snow, drizzle or fog plagued motorists in scattered areas of the nation's midsection, but skies cleared in the Northeast following Thursday's traffic-smoothing snowstorm.

The count of traffic deaths began at 6 p.m. local time Wednesday and will end at midnight Sunday.

Many Just Need to Be Honored

LONDON (AP) — Too many old-style English eccentrics are being packed off to mental hospitals when they only need humoring by their families, a British physician said today.

"What's wrong with having the odd eccentric in the family," demanded Dr. William Edwards, writing in medical magazine "Pulse."

"If your wife likes to bark like a dog, give her a dog biscuit," he says.

First Brangus Sale Held Here, Very Successful

The Arkansas Brangus Breeders Association, headed by Dr. D. J. Van Patter, Hot Springs, held its first production sale in Hope recently with the 17 bulls averaging $550 and the 24 females, $501.

A good down-to-earth Brangus sale, the top-selling bull was Flint Hills Master No. 1, a second-generation 5-year-old. Consigned by C. C. Ferguson, T-4 Ranch, Cabot, Ark., the animal went to Cathy Bros. Farm, Thornton, Ark., on a bid of $910.

The high-selling cow, also consigned by the T-4 Ranch, was T-4 Duchess 504. She went to John Hester, Jay Ranch,

Israel Prepares for War and Promises to Win It

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Premier Golda Meir has told Israelis they must "live with the possibility of renewed war" in the Middle East.

Addressing a meeting in Tel Aviv Thursday of her Labor party, Mrs. Meir also rebuked the United States for not delivering more Phantom jet fighter-bombers at a time when Arabs talk of war.

If war erupts, "we will win, but we will have to pay a price, and the victory will cost much more in human lives than if we had the planes," she said.

"How is it possible that the friends of Israel can assume such a dreadful responsibility?"

She promised the party members that "what I tell you now, I will tell the world." The Israeli premier is scheduled to meet with President Nixon next week in a major effort to get Washington to resume supplies of warplanes.

Referring to a declaration by Egyptian President Anwar Sadat that "Egypt's decision is war," Mrs. Meir said:

"We can't decide that Sadat will not make war. We have to accept that he said he would make war."

She assailed the contention that the Soviet Union was restraining Egypt from embarking on what Sadat says would be a war for liberation of the Sinai Desert captured in the 1967 war. "What sort of restraint is this, when the Soviet Union gives Sadat everything he needs to make war?"

The Labor party central committee then resolved to back the government's refusal to commit itself to troop withdrawal from any occupied Arab land, and it reaffirmed Israel's readiness "for unconditional negotiations for peace."

In Cairo, Egypt's chief of staff, Gen. Saad el Shazli said that 13 Arab nations had agreed at a military conference to wage war against Israel.

Shazli told newsmen after the conference that all "delegates voiced full desire to participate in the battle, with each country contributing what it can afford."

Attending the meeting were representatives from Algeria, Bahrain, Egypt, Iraq, Jordan, Kuwait, Lebanon, Libya, Morocco, Saudi Arabia, South Yemen, Sudan and Syria.

The semi-official Cairo newspaper, Al-Ahram, reported that Sadat has sent a message to President Nixon warning him against carrying out what the paper described as U.S. intentions to supply Israel with long-range Lance missiles.

Thanksgiving a Busy Day for the President

SAN CLEMENTE, Calif. (AP) — President Nixon spent part of Thanksgiving Day phoning holiday best wishes to political figures, including Lyndon B. Johnson, Britain's prime minister and the governors of the two most populous states.

In placing a transatlantic call to Edward Heath in London, Nixon had more to talk about than America's annual turkey-fest. Press secretary Ronald L. Ziegler said the two discussed the India-Pakistan crisis and Nixon's plans to consult with allied officials before going to Peking and Moscow.

Ziegler shed no light on the substance of the conversation, which he said lasted almost a half-hour.

The President, who went to his office at the Western White House at 6:45 a.m. Thursday, also made holiday calls to Republican Govs. Nelson A. Rockefeller of New York and Ronald Reagan of California. He also telephoned most members of the Cabinet and House GOP Leader Gerald Ford of Michigan and House Speaker Carl Albert of Oklahoma.

The press secretary said Nixon got an early start because he wanted to get his office chores out of the way in time to watch two televised football games—Nebraska vs. Oklahoma in college ranks and the Dallas Cowboys vs. the Los Angeles Rams in the National Football League.

Pakistan Claims India Drive Halted

By MYRON L. BELKIND
Associated Press Writer

NEW DELHI (AP) — The Pakistani army claimed today it has halted Indian troops it says have been advancing on five fronts into East Pakistan.

At the same time, President Agha Mohammed Yahya Khan acknowledged the existence of political unrest in West Pakistan by banning the National Awami party. He accused it of "trying to foment revolt in West Pakistan," Radio Pakistan reported.

A dispatch from Dacca said an army radioman reported that forces repulsed Indian attacks in border areas at Jessore, Benapole, Comilla, Chittagong and Sylhet. Dacca is the capital of East Pakistan province.

He said the Indians were "badly mauled," suffering more than 300 men killed—including some 200 in Comilla alone—and losing a huge quantity of arms and ammunition.

Indian officials here have consistently denied that any government troops are fighting in East Pakistan on a sustained basis.

In the Rajshahi district at Sardah, Indian troops have been seen digging trenches and laying antipersonnel and anti-tank mines, the Pakistani spokesman said, adding that more reinforcements are being brought in to be deployed on the borders.

In the Sylhet area the Indian attack was launched by the 5th Gurkha Regiment at Jantiapur but was halted Thursday and the area littered with the bodies of Indian soldiers, he said.

In the Comilla area, the Pakistani army spokesman said, all Indian maneuvers failed to gain any ground.

A major offensive came from the Indian side at Hilli in East Pakistan's northern sector but the Indians were "dislodged from the area" where they had earlier gained a small portion of territory.

Chest Pains Put Meany in Hospital

WASHINGTON (AP) — AFL-CIO President George Meany, hospitalized Thursday after he suffered chest pains, was reported "resting comfortably" early today.

Dr. Marvin Fuchs, Meany's physician, said a preliminary diagnosis indicated the 77-year-old labor leader suffered "a possible spasm in the coronary arteries."

Fuchs said Meany suffered severe chest pains Wednesday night and early Thursday but that they had disappeared by the time he was admitted to the hospital.

Meany's pulse, heart beat and blood pressure all were normal when tested at the hospital, Fuchs said.

The physician said he ordered Meany to remain in the hospital for several days because the labor leader has been "under considerable stress."

Special Traffic Summonses

BAITIMORE, Md. (AP) — Police have begun issuing 50,000 special traffic summonses—wishing motorists "a most joyous and rewarding holiday season."

The summonses look like an ordinary parking ticket but the reverse side contains a message surrounded by a green holly border. They will be given to motorists who leave their cars unlocked or valuable articles inside.

"Lock your car, pocket the keys," urges each summons, which explains larcenies of and from automobiles increase during the holiday season.

The special tickets are not used as a penalty, just a reminder.

Injunction Ordered to Force Dock Workers to End 57-Day Old Strike

U.S. Trade Deficit Largest Since War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States recorded its largest trade deficit with other countries in October since World War II, the Commerce Department reported today.

The department said the country imported goods worth $21.4 million more than it exported during the month.

That figure compared with a $25.4-million surplus recorded in September.

A Commerce Department spokesman attributed the huge deficit to the East and West Coast dock strikes. He said many East Coast shippers anticipated the walkout by shipping heavily in September.

On the West Coast, President Nixon invoked the Taft-Hartley law ordering dock workers back to their jobs during October.

The spokesman said many importing firms were forced to unload goods in heavy volume before they could resume exports, another factor in the trade deficit.

The Commerce Department began compiling seasonally adjusted figures in 1948, the last year in which a fair comparison could be made.

In another period affected by a dock strike, February 1969, there was a $406-million trade deficit.

Prison Riot Ends in Agreement

RAHWAY, N.J. (AP) — Officials are again in control of Rahway State Prison after reaching a peaceful agreement with 500 rebellious inmates who held two wings of the maximum security prison for 24 hours.

The prisoners released their remaining five hostages on Thanksgiving night in return for a promise of no reprisals against them. They also were permitted to air their grievances to three newsmen who entered the prison.

Officials pledged full negotiations on the grievances.

A team of eight attorneys headed by State Public Defender Stanley C. Van Ness planned to meet with prisoners this morning.

Under the agreement, the inmates were returned to their cells as fellow prisoners watched to ensure against possible reprisals.

The prisoners' demands included better medical care, better food, prompter parole hearings and an end to alleged racism by white officers.

Gov. William T. Cahill, who sought the release of the hostages without bloodshed, told newsmen, "I can't relate Attica to this situation. Each man that is confronted with the situation has to make the best decision under the circumstances."

In September, 43 persons died when armed troopers and corrections officers broke up a rebellion at Attica State Prison in upstate New York with gunfire and tear gas.

The Rahway hostages included U. Samuel Vukcevic, the prison superintendent. He was treated at Rahway Hospital for cuts, apparently caused by stab wounds, and injuries to the pelvis and spine.

Prisoners contended that Vukcevic, 43, was stabbed by a prison guard who pulled a switchblade knife when fighting began Wednesday night. The prisoners released a statement purportedly signed by the superintendent in which he said the inmates did not harm him and sought medical attention for him.

Two of the guards held hostage were hospitalized with injuries that included a possible fractured arm to one. Authorities said the injuries were not serious.

The prisoners originally took seven men hostage. One was released Wednesday, one Thursday afternoon, a third before newsmen were permitted to enter the prison, and the remaining four just before the meeting with newsmen ended.

DES ARC, Ark. (AP) — Pros. Atty. Sam Weems of the 17th Judicial District said Thursday the possibility "definitely existed" that he would prosecute employees of the state Welfare Department for alleged violation of state laws in the administration of welfare programs.

Weems said earlier this week that he had found 44 cases in his district in which $18,173 in food stamps had been "illegally paid out."

Elderly Group Is Treated

MINOT, N.D. (AP) — A military escort brought eight busloads of elderly persons to Minot Air Force Base Thursday for Thanksgiving dinner.

The 300 residents of the Minot Senior Citizens Center were participants in the first project sponsored by the base.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Justice Department said it will file suit today in 12 East and Gulf Coast port cities to force 45,000 striking dock workers to return to their jobs under the Taft-Hartley Act.

The department said the primary suit against the International Longshoremen's Union will be filed in a New York court. But, since employers refused to be considered as a single group, suits for an 80-day injunction against the strike will have to be sought in other port cities as well.

The other cities where suits are expected to be filed later today or on Saturday include Boston, Philadelphia, Alexandria, Va., Baltimore, Augusta, Miami, Mobile, Houston, Providence, R.I., Portland, Maine.

The name of the 12th city in which a suit will be filed was not immediately available.

The department acted on an order by President Nixon.

In a letter Thursday from the Western White House in San Clemente, Calif., Nixon ordered Atty. Gen. John Mitchell to seek an injunction against the 57-day strike under provisions of the Taft-Hartley Act.

"The necessary papers are being prepared," a Justice Department spokesman said following the White House announcement. "The civil division undoubtedly expected something like this. We will be ready to move tomorrow (Friday)."

Nixon acted after a special board of inquiry, reconvened at his request, reported there was little chance of a quick settlement between the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA) and shipping industry representatives.

ILA headquarters spokesmen were not available for comment, but Ralph Massey, president of the South Atlantic and Gulf Coast ILA district expressed disappointment at the decision.

"It just postpones the thing for 80 days," Massey said.

Nixon invoked the Taft-Hartley Act Oct. 4 to end a three-month strike by the International Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's Union on the West Coast.

The board of inquiry, which worked through the night Wednesday to assess the situation, concluded that the East and Gulf Coast negotiations had broken down over two "very sticky issues"—minimum pension guarantees and welfare contributions.

In addition to the longshoremen, the strike has idled 30,000 other union dock workers from Maine to Texas since Oct. 1.

Nebraska Beats Oklahoma Sooners at Their Own Game

By HERSCHEL NISSENSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NORMAN, Okla. (AP) — Nebraska beat Oklahoma ... at its own game.

Not only did the Cornhuskers defeat Oklahoma's volatile Wishbone attack, but they out-rushed the nation's best rushing team 297 yards to 279, and they did it on five fewer carries.

That was the story of Thursday's classic see-saw showdown, which wound up with top-ranked Nebraska's defending national champions turning back runner-up Oklahoma 35-31 on Jeff Kinney's fourth touchdown of the game, a two-yard thrust off left tackle with 1:38 left to play, capping a 74-yard, 5½-minute drive.

Nebraska's top rated defense, although it was stretched for 467 yards by the nation's most

Fisher Makes Wishbone for Tech

By HARRY KING
Associated Press Writer
RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Oklahoma has Jack Mildren. Texas has Eddie Phillips and Donnie Wigginton. Arkansas Tech has Phil Fisher.

All are quarterbacks who make the Wishbone-T work.

"Phil has done a great job in the Wishbone," said Tech Coach Don Dempsey. "He does an excellent job reading the defense. If you make the wrong read, it just blows the play."

The triple option is the key play in the Wishbone. On the triple option, the quarterback must decide whether to leave the football with the fullback, pitch to the tailback or keep.

"What makes it so difficult is that it all occurs in a split second," Dempsey said. "It takes somebody that doesn't panic, somebody who hangs in there."

Tech, the top-ranked team in the NAIA with an 11-0 record, will show off its version of the Wishbone Saturday at Russellville when the Wonder Boys play Northern State College of Aberdeen, S. D. in the first round of the NAIA playoffs.

Tech is the first AIC team to make the playoffs. Northern State, champions of the South Dakota Intercollegiate Conference, has an 8-0-1 record.

"They are a balanced team," Dempsey said. "They don't go predominantly to the run or pass. On defense, they line up in a 5-2 or 6-1 and just come get you. The backs play up tight and they do a great job of stopping the run. They're always playing the run with at least seven people."

That type of defense can be vulnerable to the run and Tech has had more success passing than most teams which operate from the run-oriented Wishbone.

"We haven't experienced that much difficulty throwing out of the Wishbone," Dempsey said. "Fisher has completed 57 and 58 per cent of his passes for more than 1,100 yards."

When it was learned that Tech would use the Wishbone as its primary offense in 1971, State College of Arkansas Coach Raymond Bright predicted great things for the Wonder Boys.

"The Wishbone was made for Arkansas Tech," Bright said. "He went on to discuss the Wonder Boys' large group of outstanding backs and their stout offensive line."

The running backs include Larry Brown, Bill Breedlove, Doug Bice and Benny Shepherd. Brown carried 153 times for 883 yards and nine touchdowns and averaged 5.8 yards a try after two consecutive 1,000 yard plus seasons as an I-formation tailback.

Bice made 470 yards on 78 carries and Breedlove contributed 425 yards. Shepherd was the game breaker of the bunch. Whether running, blocking or returning kickoffs he was devastating. The 195-pounder with sprinter's speed averaged 6.1 yards a try while rushing for 713 yards. He also led the league in kickoff returns with 16 for 502 yards and AIC observers said he was the most deadly backfield blocker the league had ever seen.

However, Shepherd was injured in Tech's regular season finale with Arkansas AM&N and is not expected to play Saturday.

offensive-minded team, never snapped, and, in fact, took away the fuse that ignites the Sooner attack the end sweeps by speedy Greg Pruitt.

Meanwhile, the Nebraska offense discovered the Oklahoma defenders were vulnerable to a power play off tackle and the Cornhuskers sent Kinney smashing for 154 yards in the second half.

"The only thing they took away from our defense was that we didn't break any 70-yards," said quarterback Jack Mildren, Oklahoma's star performer with 30 carries for 130 yards and two touchdowns and five of 10 passes for 137 yards and two more scores.

"They kept us from going wide with Pruitt."

"They just weren't giving us the pitchout," said Pruitt, who gained 53 yards on 10 carries, only twice running the feared pitchout-sweep that made him the most explosive running back in the country.

In effect, the only thing Nebraska took away from Oklahoma's offense was the spark-plug. It was enough.

Nebraska's defensive ends, Willie Harper and John Adkins, played wide to shut off Oklahoma's pitchouts.

"We knew they had to," said Coach Bob Devaney. "They were turning the play back into our other people. The way the defensive ends played the pitchout we copied from Missouri, which defended Oklahoma very well. We also copied some things that Southern Cal did well against them. We looked at eight or nine different game films and tried to incorporate the best of them."

"But we were very cautious to get our defensive ends wide enough. You might not have noticed them as the ones doing the job, but they were. I talked to John McKay of Southern Cal and he said their defensive ends probably underestimated Oklahoma's speed. So we played it wider."

The Cornhusker offense, which had planned to run wide but managed only 67 yards in the first half, took the fight directly to Oklahoma after trailing 17-14 at the half.

"In the first half, we kind of had to figure out where we could move the ball," explained Devaney. "In the second half, we decided to go right at them. We found we could move the ball on the ground and we relied a little more on our ground game in the second half. Oklahoma has a fine ground game but ours was certainly great today."

"We beat them physically in the second half," said quarterback Jerry Tagge. "One play, a power play off tackle, was going very well. When they lined up strong to one side, we just ran it to the other side. I called quite a few audibles."

The nation's 1-2 teams took turns thrilling a sellout crowd of 61,826 and a national television audience.

Nebraska's Johnny Rodgers zipped 72 yards on a punt return with only 3½ minutes gone and, following a 30-yard field goal by Oklahoma's John Carroll, the Cornhuskers took a 14-3 lead early in the second quarter on the first of Kinney's four short touchdown plunges.

That's when Oklahoma proved its own worth. Twice the Sooners battled back from an 11-point deficit. This time they went 80 yards, with Mildren scoring on a three-yard keeper, and they exploded 78 yards in only four plays and 46 seconds just before halftime to nose ahead 17-14.

Behind for the first time in this 11-0 season, Nebraska wasn't about to be denied. Kinney capped drives of 53 and 62 yards with third-period touchdowns to make it 28-17. But again the Sooners tilted the roller coaster in their direction.

Mildren scored on a two-yard run at the end of a 73-yard strike that featured a 51-yard bomb from Jon Harrison, who grabbed Mildren's two touchdowns passes, to Albert Chandler and Mildren lofted a 17-yarder to Harrison with 7:10 remaining.

Threatened with having their 20-game winning streak and 29-game unbeaten skein broken,

Alabama, Nebraska May Be Title Game

By ALEX SACHARE
Associated Press Sports Writer
Will there be a national college football championship game on New Year's Day?

If so, it will take place in Miami on the night of Jan. 1, when Nebraska and Alabama clash in the Orange Bowl.

Nebraska maintained its position on top of the heap by defeating second-ranked Oklahoma 35-31 Thursday. Fullback Jeff Kinney, who scored four touchdowns for the Cornhuskers, climaxed a 74-yard march in the closing moments of the fourth quarter with a two-yard touchdown plunge to give unbeaten Nebraska its 11th victory of the season.

Alabama, 10-0 and ranked third, could move up a notch Saturday. But the Crimson Tide has to get past fifth-ranked Auburn, and its Heisman Trophy-winning quarterback Pat Sullivan, in their battle at Birmingham, Ala.

In Thursday's other big games, No. 12 Texas 8-2, clinched the Southwest Conference championship and a berth in the Cotton Bowl against Penn State by scoring four first half touchdowns and going on to defeat Texas A&M 34-14.

Mississippi, 5-2, ranked 18th and head for the Peach Bowl against Georgia Tech, exploded for six touchdowns in the second period—three of them scored on runs by tailback Gregg Ainsworth—and whipped Mississippi State 48-0.

In Thursday night's top game, seventh-ranked Georgia, 10-1, came from behind to defeat Georgia Tech 28-24. Georgia's sophomore quarterback, Andy Johnson, led his team on a 65-yard scoring drive in the final 1:29. Jimmy Poulos scoring the winning touchdown from one yard out with 14 seconds left on the clock.

But the biggest game of the day was played in Norman, Okla. The Sooners' vaunted Wishbone-T proved it could move the ball against the Nebraska defense—which had been rated first in the nation—but Nebraska showed that its defense was nothing to be ashamed of.

Kinney, who carried the ball 22 times for 154 yards in the second half, scored on touchdown runs of one, three, one and two yards. His coach, Bob Devaney, called it "as fine a job of carrying the football as I've ever seen."

Both quarterbacks, Jerry Tagge of Nebraska and Jack Mildren of Oklahoma, distinguished themselves. Tagge maintained his poise throughout the game, coolly leading his team down the field in the final period, come-from-behind drive. Mildren was the heart of the Oklahoma attack, completing six of 11 passes for 188 yards and two touchdowns and running the Sooner offense for 279 yards on the ground, running for two touchdowns and over 100 yards himself.

The victory, Nebraska's 21st in succession, extended its string of games without defeat to 30. The Cornhuskers travel to Hawaii for their final game of the regular season next Saturday, then prepare for their Orange Bowl date against Bear Bryant's Alabama squad, led by running back Johnny Musso.

The Alabama-Auburn clash is the highlight of Saturday's program. Alabama, with Musso heading a flock of outstanding running backs, likes to stick to the ground, while Auburn, with one of the nation's top passing combinations in Sullivan and Terry Beasley, takes to the air more often.

Also on Saturday's schedule is the traditional inter-service battle between Army and Navy in Philadelphia. Both the Army-Navy game, at 1 p.m. (EST), and the Alabama-Auburn clash, at 4 p.m. (EST), will be nationally televised by ABC.

In other traditional rivalries Saturday, Arizona is at No. 9 Arizona State, Tulane plays at No. 10 Louisiana State, Vanderbilt visits No. 11 Tennessee and Florida plays at Miami (Fla.). In other major games, Utah visits No. 15 Houston, Iowa State journeys to San Diego State and Morgan State plays at Rutgers.

The Dallas Cowboys have tightened their grasp on the National Conference East lead and, by doing so, have thrown the West into an even wilder three-way scramble.

The Cowboys beat Los Angeles 28-21 in one of Thursday's National Football League games—Detroit topped Kansas City 32-21 in the other—to open a one-game edge over Washington in the NFC East.

That also sent the Rams skidding back into a virtual deadlock with San Francisco in the West—and Atlanta is only half a game behind the front-runners.

The 49ers can take sole possession of first with a victory over the New York Jets Sunday and the Falcons can stay in the race by turning back Minnesota.

Sunday's other games have Washington at Philadelphia, St. Louis at the New York Giants, New Orleans against Green Bay at Milwaukee, New England at Buffalo, San Diego at Cincinnati, Denver at Pittsburgh, Cleveland at Houston and Baltimore at Oakland. On Monday night, Chicago visits Miami.

"I feel sore but happy," Cowboys quarterback Roger Staubach said after scrambling for 33 yards and passing for 176 more. "We won it and it was a big win."

"I wasn't anxious to run a lot, though," he said. "I wasn't looking for any holes to run through." His 11-yard fourth-quarter scamper set up Duane Thomas' game-winning five-yard touchdown run.

Staubach also rifled touchdown passes of 51 yards to Bob Hayes and 21 to Lance Alworth and Isaac Thomas steamed 89 yards with a kickoff return for the Cowboys' other scores.

Roman Gabriel, the Rams' quarterback who struck for touchdown passes of 33 yards to Bob Klein and two yards to Pat Curran, passed for 234 yards but suffered an injury. "It's my normal artificial turf knee," he sighed. "I'm three-for-three on it—two hurt knees and a concussion."

The Rams held a 14-7 lead heading toward halftime but, instead of increasing it, they blew it when a fake field goal backfired.

"I've hit that play a million times in practice," said holder Jerry Rhome, who overthrew a open receiver. On the next play Staubach unleashed his scoring bomb to Hayes.

The Lions, clinging to hopes of catching Minnesota in the NFC Central Division, moved within a game of the Vikings while dealing Kansas City a big setback as the Chiefs fell: a full game back of Oakland in the American Conference West.

But despite the loss, Chiefs Coach Hank Stram said: "We're still in good shape for the playoffs."

Sullivan Is Heisman Trophy Winner

AUBURN, Ala. (AP) — "Congratulations Pat Sullivan."

Those words were strung up on a theater marquee in this small campus town, and though the students were away for Thanksgiving holidays, the theater's tribute seemed to catch the prevailing mood. Auburn had become Heisman Trophy Town after the Tigers' senior quarterback, Patrick Joseph Sullivan, was awarded the 1971 crown Thursday night.

Sullivan had been sequestered in a town motel to await the announcement, which came from the Downtown Athletic Club of New York City during halftime ceremonies of the nationally televised Georgia-Georgia Tech game.

The 21-year-old native of Birmingham, Ala., said he was dazed when he heard his name called, but that he was in better shape when Head Coach Ralph "Shug" Jordan drove over to the motel to pay him a compliment.

"He was just real happy," Sullivan said of his coach, who is in his 21st year at the helm of the Sugar Bowl-bound Tigers.

Jordan, for the most part, turned the spotlight over to the quarterback who has guided Auburn to 26 victories in 31 games over the past three years. But he did say: "Speaking for the staff and the team, we're extremely proud of Pat Sullivan's winning the Heisman trophy."

"We think he deserved it because he's had three outstanding and consistent years. The Downtown Athletic Club of New York City has done him a great honor. They certainly picked a most deserving winner in Pat Sullivan."

Sullivan was also paid a complimentary call by his friend, Johnny Musso, whose unbeaten Alabama team collides with the undefeated Tigers in Birmingham Saturday.

LR Hall Defeats LR Central 28-7

Aggie Coach Is Relieved

COLLEGE STATION, Tex. (AP)—Texas' 34-14 Thanksgiving Day victory over the Texas Aggies gave the Horns an unprecedented fourth straight Southwest Conference football championship but it marked the end of an era for the Aggies.

Several hours after the Longhorns had rolled over A&M, the A&M board of directors announced that Athletic Director and head football coach Gene Stallings would be relieved of all his responsibilities effective Dec. 1.

Marvin Tate, associate athletic director, was named acting athletic director.

"A committee consisting of representatives of the athletic council, administration and board of directors will be formed to begin a search for a Stallings' successor," the terse statement said.

The brief statement ended a seven-year tenure for Stallings, during which he compiled a 27-45-1 record and took the Aggies to the Southwest Conference championship in 1967 and a 20-16 Cotton Bowl victory over Alabama. It was the Aggies' only winning season under Stallings. It also ended rumors that had circulated since the Aggies lost five of their first six games before catching fire for four straight victories prior to Thursday's loss to the 12th ranked Longhorns.

Stallings, who replaced Hank Fildberg in 1964, spoke confidently prior to a meeting in the home of A&M President Jack Williams Thursday he would continue as the Aggie coach.

"I've got another year on my contract," Stallings said. "I've got an oral contract. It's a man-to-man agreement. I've never signed a contract since I've been here."

"Right after we won the conference championship I went to President Earl Rudder and suggested a written contract," Stallings said. "He told me I didn't need one. He told me I could coach at Texas A&M as long as I wanted to."

President Williams became the A&M president following the death of Rudder in the spring of 1970.

Stallings said he would not be available following the meeting with Williams. He said if the news was bad, he wanted time to think about a statement.

As for the game, it was a case of the Aggies returning to their old habits of making the mistakes that had cost them five losses in the opening six games. During their four-game winning streak, the Aggies had played almost errorless football, committing only three turnovers.

But that all changed Thursday. The Aggies lost the ball

Irwin Leads Trevino by 10 Strokes

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Golf Writer

HILTON HEAD ISLAND, S.C. (AP) — Lee Trevino had a 78 to his credit, including a big eight on a par-three hole, and was 10 strokes off the pace—but his head was up and the grin in place going into today's second round in the $110,000 Heritage Golf Classic.

"I'm not discouraged," said the irrepressible Trevino said. "It's the kind of course where you can make up ground fast."

Trevino matched his worst round of the year in his watery effort over the demanding Harbour Town Golf links—hitting four in the water—and trailed first round leader Hale Irwin by 10 strokes.

Irwin, a longshot who hasn't led before this season and has yet to win in four years on the pro tour, fired a solid, three-under-par 68 on the seaside, 6,655-yard layout and took sole control of the top spot when Arnold Palmer bogeyed the final hole.

"I'm generally pretty well satisfied and played reasonably well," said Palmer, who is enjoying one of his better seasons at the age of 42. "But it made me mad as hell to bogey that last hole."

He was tied with Dave Eichelberger, a 28-year-old Texan who has come into his own this season after a five-year struggle. Each had a 69.

Bob Smith and Rod Curl followed at 70 and were the only other players able to break par on the testing, treacherous layout.

Jack Nicklaus, some $20,000 back of Trevino in the race for leading money winning honors, was one of a half dozen at 71.

Nicklaus made the turn two over par, then reeled off four birds in a six hole stretch starting the back nine, only to falter.

Irwin matched one three-putt bogey with a birdie four on the front side, then closed strongly. He hit a sand wedge to six feet for a birdie on the 12th hole, made it from 15 feet on the par five 15th and punched a seven iron to within four feet for another bird on the 16th. He missed from 12 feet for still another birdie on the last hole.

But these just softened the sting as the game belonged to Texas almost from the start. The turning point came in the second quarter when the Longhorns scored three times, after a pass interception and two short punts into a stiff breeze.

North's four-club call shows an expert gadget at work. South's jump to three spades was a game force. North's four club bid showed the ace of clubs and suggested slam. North had the cards to warrant it—18 points in aces and kings.

South's four-diamond call was a trifle optimistic, but South liked his distribution. He signed off at four spades after North cue bid in hearts but North simply went to the spade slam.

The slam was a good one since it would be a cinch if East held the queen of diamonds; if diamonds broke 3-3; if trumps broke 2-2; or if the queen of diamonds would drop doubleton.

South looked over dummy and remarked, "I would hate to lose this contract. There must be a safe line of play." We will leave it to you readers to decide if South proceeded to adopt the safest line.

He won the heart, cashed one of his high spades and dummy's ace-king of clubs to get rid of his losing heart.

Then he led a low diamond and finessed his jack. West took his queen and led a second heart. South ruffed, cashed a second high trump, led a diamond to the ace, a diamond back to his king, ruffed his last diamond and claimed the slam.

DR. LAWRENCE E. LAMB

Prostate Surgery May Be Solution

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.
Dear Dr. Lamb—My doctor has prescribed female hormones for an enlarged prostate gland. I have been on this medication about three years now. It has helped my ailment quite a lot, but it has reduced my sexual desire and has caused impotency.

Do you advise small doses of male hormones given carefully? Could it be my adrenal glands are not functioning? Is there any medication that would help my impotency?

Dear Reader—There is no doubt about the fact that female hormones will neutralize the effects of male hormones and will help in some cases of enlarged prostate. To be effective, though, the amount required will indeed cause impotency, and lack of sexual desire. Taking male hormones would simply defeat the purpose of the female hormones.

If all you have is simply enlargement of the prostate gland and not some other complication, then you very likely could have the problem corrected by surgery. That would mean you wouldn't have to take the female hormone any more. The enlarged prostate is simply bored out to make a larger passage way so normal urination can occur.

A high percentage of men who have had these operations can return to having normal sexual relations after they have recovered.

Since you are disturbed about your impotency, why don't you discuss the possibility of surgery with your doctor?

Dear Dr. Lamb—I would like your opinion on dogs living with infants (house dogs).

Is it harmful for a Yorkshire-Terrier, that has a continual lick, unless she is pushed aside, to be with a crawling, helpless baby?

Dear Reader—Probably not nearly so dangerous as exposure to other children. The truth is that animals often do not have the same diseases as humans and humans cannot catch most of the diseases animals have. This is why it is so difficult to study some human diseases in animals. Distemper, for example, in dogs has no counterpart in humans. Of course, there are a few exceptions, such as rabies from unvaccinated sick animals and cat scratch fever.

Depending upon the pet's habits the child may be exposed to some dirt and unsanitary elements that are more offensive to the sensibilities than to health. But from another child the baby can get common colds, an endless variety of contagious diseases and, not infrequently, pin worms. A child who never has the pin worms is often a child without friends. Humans don't get worms from dogs or cats.

A pet of the right kind can

OPPOSES NUDITY
PRETORIA, South Africa (AP) — Art does not exist for its own sake, but is subject to the word of God, three churchwomen told Prime Minister John Vorster. They presented Vorster with a memorandum condemning a controversial nude statue scheduled to be erected at a new government office building. The memorandum said: "It is clear the Bible demands the wearing of clothes in public after the fall of man."

a Miracle

7he miracle of the loaves and fishes. Such a familiar Bible story and it is definitely true. After all, who would doubt that Christ could turn five loaves and two fishes into more than enough for five thousand people. Who would doubt that four thousand were fed by seven loaves and a few minnows, again with a surplus.

Yes, who amongst us would doubt that miracles did occur, that events did happen for which there was no scientific explanation? But that was two thousand years ago. But what about today? Do miracles still occur? Who would question this divine intervention? Who would bellow at these extraordinaries? It was God making wonderful.

One can best understand if he considers the words of Christ: "Ask, and it shall be given you..." (Matt. 7:7). If we have only to ask in order to receive, then miracles could surely still occur. And they do still occur, as millions will testify.

When we petition God, what should we ask for? Ask only for that which you need. Ask no more. Expect no less. For God can and will provide, as He did long ago with a few sardines and sandwiches. And when He does provide, then our miracle has occurred.

You In The Church
The Church is You — form a combination for good. Every man, woman and child needs the influence of the church. So, come let us go into the house of the Lord. Let us support her program of service to humanity, be a faithful worker, a daily bible reader and attend services regularly.

LAUGHING BOY from Peking, Chiao Kuan-hua, chief of Communist China's United Nations delegation, often appears to be enjoying a great joke in public appearances. But smiles were few during his introductory U.N. address, laying down a hard line that drew a reproach of "intemperance" from U.S. Ambassador George Bush.

Laub Moves Into First Place at Bowling Tourney

CHICAGO (AP) — Larry Laub, a 28-year-old professional from San Francisco, came storming from fourth place into a sizeable lead Thursday night at the $85,000 Brunswick World Open Bowling Tournament moved into its semifinals phase. The winner of two Professional Bowlers Association titles—his most recent triumph came four weeks ago in Lincoln, Neb.—Laub took all eight of his games as the format of this inaugural competition turned from qualifying to man-against-man play.

John Petraglia, Brooklyn, N.Y., left-hander, moved up from seventh place when he outscored Laub by three pins, even though he lost two of his eight clashes. As the now 24-man field turned into today's final two semifinals blocks, Laub's lead over the slender southpaw was 107 pins.
